❖ On a separate page (preferably word processed), please respond to each of the following items (a short paragraph for each)

❖ Your application and a non-refundable deposit of $ 50⁰⁰ should be turned in no later than Friday, March ~~9~~ 2012

1. Briefly describe your current relationship with God; what would you say is going well and what aspects of the relationship seem to be more difficult for you?
2. Name a trial or triumph in the last year that has helped shape your life.
3. Could you name two or three people you look to as an example of what it means to be a Christian? Describe the qualities you see in them that you admire.
4. Name two or three people in your life right now whom you hope will become Christians, how you know them, and what you feel you can do to help them to know Jesus.
5. Do you feel like you could clearly explain the Gospel and the way of salvation to a non-Christian family member or friend? (Check the one or two that apply the most to you.)

- Honestly, I don't understand the question.
- Probably not, because I don't feel I know enough yet.
- I think I'd try, but probably not know the right things to say.
- I probably wouldn't because I fear being rejected.
- I want some help and prayer to improve in this area.
- I feel I know the right things to say, but fear does rule my heart/mind.
- I think I am trying and that I do clearly communicate the Gospel.

Take a moment to explain the reasons for any of the statements you checked.

6. When thinking about a mission trip, what part of the trip do you look forward to the most?
 - Physical labor/serving with my hands.
 - Working with people (children, elderly, any interpersonal interaction).
 - Being with my friends/teammates (family time, worship, playing together).
 - Sharing about Jesus with anyone/everyone in one-on-one situations.
 - Publicly sharing the Gospel (testimony, preaching, etc.).
 - Prayer.

Take a moment to explain the reasons for any of the statements you checked.

Following the Application is a Youthmark Medical/Liability Release form for the Spring Retreat and Mission Venture. This needs to be turned in with application as well.
